EXODUS UNDER WAY FROM RHODE ISLAND BEACHES

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Providence, R. I., Sept. 23.—The opening of the public schools and the cool weather of the past week has about completed the exodus from the seashore and country places of Rhode Island to the city homes. A very few are braving the cool nights and remaining later, but the very large majority of cottagers and visitors have returned to their permanent homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dawson of Norwich who have had a cottage at Warwick Downs all summer closed it the past week and have returned to their home. Last Wednesday evening they entertained a number of friends from Providence and Pawtucket as a farewell to the season and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Miss Emma Salisbury is spending a few days with relatives in Providence before her return to her home at Weymouth. She has been spending several weeks with her uncle's family at their summer home at Oakland Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. William Randall of Norwich are spending a few days with relatives in East Providence. They are on a two-week automobile trip in Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Browning and children of Norwich made an automobile trip the past week which included Green Hill and Charlestown beaches. During their stay at Green Hill they were entertained by Mr. Browning's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Browning.

Mrs. Thomas Glover and children of Providence are spending several weeks with relatives at Ashaway.

Mrs. James Kelly and two children of Norwich are stopping for a few days with her brother, Edward O'Connor and family on Chalkstone avenue, Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turner of Norwich are with friends at Buttonwoods Beach for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gleason and family of Norwich are spending a fortnight's vacation with relatives at Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Cook of Norwich spent the last week-end with relatives at Weymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chandler and family of Danvers were the guests the past week of Edward O. Cornforth and family of Statesville.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Mrs. John Stanton of Coventry, R. I., has been a visitor with friends here. Gilbert Graves, who died in Killingly Saturday, formerly lived here, where he sold fish. He leaves a son, Frederick Graves, a grandson, Fred Graves, a granddaughter, Mrs. Evelyn Bulkeley and a great-grandson, Robert Bulkeley, all of this village.

Avery Metcalf has moved into the house with his father-in-law, Ulysses G. Cooper, as the house where Mr. Metcalf lived has been sold to Walter Hitchins, who will move his family here from Monmouth. They formerly lived here.

Edward Gallagher and family have been entertaining Mr. Gallagher's sister, Mrs. Gillman, of Blackstone, Mass.

Mrs. Jennie Seider of Putnam spent Sunday with local friends.

Samuel Schofield was a recent visitor in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. William Neethon of East Douglas, Mass., spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Frank Pence and son, Vincent, of Northdale, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Pence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bourque.

Mrs. George Street has been visiting Passaic, R. I., friends.

The Ladies' Aid society held its annual meeting at the church Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Roman Lenard has been visiting friends in New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. John Westcott and daughter, Ruth, have returned to their home in Providence, having visited Mrs. Westcott's sister.

Willard Collins attended the fair at Kingston, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. George Potvin and children have returned from their vacation spent in Maine.

The King's Daughters met at their rooms Monday afternoon. Supper was served for the members.

LISBON

Miss Gladys Ellis was given a surprise by a number of friends Friday evening, it being her birthday. Games were played and Victrola selections were enjoyed. Cake, ice cream and bananas were served by Mrs. C. A. Whitaker, assisted by Mrs. A. A. Rice. Miss Ellis received a number of gifts.

R. B. Barber's first grandson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Barber of Waterbury, has been named Rowland Phillips, for the two grandfathers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Reed attended North Stonington fair Wednesday.

Mrs. G. A. Kennedy had a week-end guests her sister, Mrs. Winard Coffins and Miss Evelyn Collins, of Central Village and Mrs. Marjorie Taylor, of New York.

Miss Daisy Warner returned to Norwich Monday after a visit with her cousin, Miss Helen Rice.

R. B. Barber and Arthur Edmonds attended Brooklyn fair Tuesday.

Of a list of thirty-one voters to be made only eleven appeared before the board Saturday. They were Madeline Gundeman, Anna Heibel, Clarence V. Lee, Charles W. Timber, Louis Evans, Mary Krauss, Lena Kamuff, Arnold K. Headon, Emma P. Headon, William F. Morehouse, Alton M. Read.

Stony Creek—The wedding of Miss May Salzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Salzman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Charles Jaffa, took place Tuesday afternoon at the country home of the bride's parents in Stony Creek, Conn. Dr. Rosen officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Jaffa left for the Canadian Rockies and the Pacific coast. The bride attended Packer Institute. Mr. Jaffa is a lawyer.

Free to Asthma and Hay Fever Sufferers

Free Trial of a Method That Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time

We have a method for the control of asthma, and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development, whether it is present as hay fever or chronic asthma, we will send you a free trial of our method. No matter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, we will send you a free trial of our method which will relieve you promptly.

We especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases, where all forms of inhalers, nostrils, opium preparations, fumigations, patent remedies, etc., have failed. We want to show everyone at our expense that our method is designed to end all difficult breathing, all wheezing, and all those terrible paroxysms.

This free offer is too important to neglect a single day. Write now and begin the method at once. Send no money. Simply mail coupon below. Do It Today—you do not even pay postage.
